What you'll learn

You'll build on your knowledge of working directly with children and young people in school or college environments.

You'll be encouraged to take more leadership responsibility in school or college settings.

Assessments / Exams

You'll have a personal assessor assigned to you to ensure your competency.

A typical week

You will spend 4 hours per week (Tuesdays, 4-8pm) and a minimum of 12 hours in the work placement, as a volunteer.

Entry requirements

You'll need to have successfully completed Level 2 Supporting Teaching & Learning.

You'll also need Level 2 English & Maths, or to be working towards English & Maths GCSEs.

Our teaching staff

All of our teaching staff have vast industry experience within early years and schools environments.

Links with employers

As part of the course you'll spend 420 hours on placements.

This kind of work experience will be a huge advantage when you look for jobs or courses for further study.
