Overview

This is an advanced course and an ideal next step on from the City & Guilds Patisserie and Confectionery Level 2 programme.

What you'll learn

You'll be making advanced chocolate display pieces and learning the art of tempering milk, dark and white chocolate.

You'll be creating:

- Handmade Easter eggs decorated with piped chocolate
- Chocolate flowers
- Handmade chocolate truffles

You'll also cover:

- Dough & batter products
- Biscuits, cakes and sponges
- Paste products, including puff pastry, brioche, strudel pastry, choux pastry (Paris-Brest Gateau) & sweet pastry
- Display pieces (see details of the chocolate work above)
- Complex desserts including soufflés, fruit fritters, raspberry mousse, praline cheesecake & burnt orange panna cotta

Assessments / Exams

You'll be assessed on practical demonstrations and assignments.

There'll also be a practical exam.

Entry requirements

You'll need to have successfully completed a relevant Level 2 qualification, ideally the City & Guilds Level 2 Professional Cookery (Patisserie) course.

What this course leads to

After completing this course you'll be qualified to start your career!

Opportunities may include working as a pâtissière or a cake decorator.

Other employment opportunities will also be open to you. These include jobs within research & development and the hygiene industry, and working as a food representative.
