Overview

Do you enjoy massage? Are you interested in natural healing methods?

This 12 week part time Reflexology course has been specifically designed to teach you the practical elements of preparing and providing Reflexology and the philosophy and theories behind it. The course will run subject to enough interest in the course.

What you'll learn

Reflexology is a non-intrusive complementary health therapy, based on the theory that different points on the feet, lower leg, hands, face or ears correspond with different areas of the body.

Reflexologists work holistically with their clients and aim to work alongside allopathic healthcare to promote better health for their clients.

Assessments / Exams

You will be assessed by an externally set short-answer written exam, a practical observation task, case studies and reflective practice.

Entry requirements

A good standard of written and spoken English.
Previous knowledge of Anatomy and Physiology is vital.

Our teaching staff

The tutors on this course have outstanding knowledge and experience from working in the hair & beauty industry, as well as valuable industry links to help you gain an insight into the industry.

What this course leads to

On completion of this course you could go on to study the Level 3 Certificate in Reflexology for Complementary Therapies.
