Overview

This part-time evening course is great if you're looking to develop your English listening, speaking, reading and writing skills.

If you're thinking about sitting an IELTS course or need to improve your English in order to progress to university to study at a higher level, then this course in our ESOL (English for Speakers of Other Languages) offer is a great choice.

What you'll learn

You will develop your English listening, speaking, reading and writing skills and improve vocabulary and grammar. In addition, you will study personal and social development. You will learn computer skills combined with ESOL learning and use of video, digital camera and ESOL computer programmes.

You will use computers to help learn English and to use Moodle, our virtual learning environment, which contains lots of information and activities that you can get to from any computer that has access to the internet.

Assessments / Exams

You will sit ESOL Skills for Life exams in Reading, Writing and Listening and Speaking.

What this course leads to

You could take the IELTS exam and then apply for a university place.
