Overview

This course is for anyone who would like to learn about the role of an interpreter and work with different linguistic groups within the community.

What you'll learn

You will explore the public and voluntary organisations and identify in what ways they support community needs. You will also learn how to use language skills to the best advantage as an interpreter.

Assessments / Exams

You'll complete a portfolio for each of the three mandatory units.

Entry requirements

You will need to be fluent in English (at least Level 1) as well as another language.

Links with employers

You will start building your network, researching potential organisations with the sectors where interpreters may be required to work.

What this course leads to

You will be able to progress to a Level 2 in Community Interpreting, or into employment.
